Hundreds of Marist students take over the McDonald Theater for a night of fun at the annual formal prom

By Nikki Hallenbeck

Last Saturday over 200 Marist students attended the 'Starry Night' prom at the McDonald Theater. Students appointed Andre' Post and Maddie Whalen as prom king and queen.

Most students agree that the Prom was a good time, however, the absence of Mr. Oldham's DJ skills was greatly mourned.

Junior Hailey Winona said, "My favorite part of the entire night was watching Sam Noble's crazy dance to Sandstorm." Fellow junior Shannon Walsh believes the highlight of her night was her date, senior Michael Huston.

Many students enjoyed the usual pre-prom activities like dinner, pictures and some lucky groups even rented a limousine/party bus. Long dresses appeared to be a trend among the girls this year. Trends among the boys include; black sunglasses and an unusual one, thick white sweatbands.

Last weekend the Marist Shooting Team won the State Trap and Skeet championship held in Cottage Grove.

The victory marks the first state championship for Marist at the 5A level. Even more remarkably, the championship was won in the team's first year in existence.

Junior Cade Miller led the team to medal in four categories; Trap Individual, Skeet Individual, Team Trap and Team Skeet.

June 2nd the team will compete in Sporting Clays competition in Florence Oregon.

All the members have qualified for nationals in Sparta, Illinois which are to be held July 17 to the 20th.

Golf teams sweep districts

Seniors Frankie Souza and Brent Pollock lead their respective teams to the state tournament

By Jackson Bedbury and Zach Silva

Varsity won districts Tuesday at Emerald Valley with a 1, 2, 3 finish from Brent Pollock, Nate Krause, and Billy Pollock respectively. Brent Pollock shot a second round 68 complete with a hole in one on number two to finish with a tournament total of 144, the lowest district total in five years and the largest margin of victory since 2009.

Krause said the boys are "still disappointed about last year," and on their potential he said, "We need to play like we did the second day of districts to put ourselves in a good position to win state."

Also Tuesday, the girls finished their district competition at Tokatee. Senior Frankie Souza finished second overall with an extremely consistent two rounds at 81 and 82. Along with Souza, seniors Sami Pitts, McKenzie Hughes, and Tierney Werner all placed in the top 6 propelling the Spartans to the Midwestern League team title.

MR. CONGENIALITY

By Michael Busse

The Mr. Spartan team reunited Thursday evening at Thurston High School to compete in a volleyball tournament against other local Children's Miracle Network pageant teams.

Marist received the congeniality award after winning three games, coming in fourth overall among twelve teams. The team also performed their dance from the pageant.

"It was pretty competitive, but we had a really good time," said senior Josh Paiement.

GAME TIME FOR AUCTION

By Claire Koester

Months of hard work by the Marist community culminate Saturday in the Marist GameDay Auction starting with the silent auction at 5 p.m.

There will be 46 packages in the live auction starting at 7 p.m., including a father-son survival weekend, an opportunity to job shadow in the medical field, and an authentic replica of the Oregon Duck football helmets worn in the 2012 Rose Bowl. The auction committee hopes to raise at least $250,000 to secure Marist's future growth and success.
