

SENIOR HAPPENINGS

BACCALAUREATE MASS

St. Paul Catholic Church

June 5

7 p.m.

GRADUATION

Marist

Gymnasium

June 6

11 a.m.

Final Giving Counts

Leo Rain and Collin Kirk sort cans and bottles for Environmental Club. Photo by Gabby Mujica

By Madisyn Bryant

The final cans and bottles collection of the year took place on Tuesday, adding to the $800 that was already raised throughout the year. Thank you to all of the families who donated their cans and bottles and to those who assisted with collections to help support Stove Team International.

STRONG SPARTAN OF THE WEEK

Jordan Pifer sets the pace for the first half of the race. Photo by Jack Kiesewetter

By Austin McIntire and Emily Jewett

Shout out to this week's Strong Spartan, junior Jordan Pifer. Pifer rabbitied the Prefontaine Classic's High School Boys' One Mile race. Pifer was chosen for his ability to set the pace for the first two laps of the elite race of runners from across the country.

FINAL FAREWELLS

By Emily Jewett

The seniors gathered last Friday in the Holy Dome with the whole Marist community for the final time, to celebrate the annual Senior Farewell Mass.

The Mass began with seniors Katie Barker and Matt Harwood, dressed as a banana and a hot dog, gave advice to the juniors and underclassmen.

In gratitude for their service to the school, encounter rectors Claire Sick, Allie Thompson, Claire Farrington, Carley Beck, Chaney Hart, Jordan Pickrel, Tyler Fechtel, and Matt Harwood received the banners from their junior encounter.

Voted upon by his peers, senior Dallin Cone was chosen as the Most Courageous from the Class of 2015 and received the honor of changing the Marist motto from "We Are One" to "We Are Done."

Retiring staff were celebrated for their dedication to the Marist community. Athletic Director Sharee Waldron, math teacher Dough Schaaf, art teacher Alexis Schmidt, and Principal Jay Conroy were acknowledged for their service to Marist.

Marist teacher Amber Patterson read the Prayers of the Faithful with her son, Randy, and teacher Pat Wagner brought forward the gifts with his son, Joe.

At the end of the Mass, the staff and student body extended their hands in blessing over the Class of 2015, ushering them out into realms beyond high school, with prayers for health, safety, and remembrance of their Marist roots.

Senior Dallin Cone, voted most courageous, adds the traditional "D" to the "We Are One," signifying the completion of four years at Marist. Photo by Toni Cooper

Senior Randy Patterson and teacher Amber Patterson read the Prayers of the Faithful. Photo by Toni Cooper

Principal Jay Conroy and teachers Lex Schmidt and Doug Schaaf are blessed by Marist Community as they prepare to retire. Photo by Katie Seaver

Photo Above: Senior Nick Mack embraces classmate McCoy Gosslee during the Ministry of Greeting at the Senior Farewell Mass. Photo by Toni Cooper

Saying Goodbye to Old Friends and Making New Traditions

By Austin McIntire

Last Friday brought Homegoing Week to an exciting end with an ultimate game, between the juniors and seniors, and the Homegoing Dance.

The ultimate game took place after school on the football field. The seniors won 13 to 11.

The thrift-shop-themed Homegoing Dance was held in the cafeteria and raised $819 for Project Starfish. Including this event the entire proceeds that Marist will donate to Project starfish is $12,826.28, smashing the goal of $10,500.

Juniors and seniors face off in a game of Ultimate. Photo by Sophia Bethel

Outdoor Concert

Rock band performs in a lunch time concert last Friday as well as this Friday. Photo by Toni Cooper

Bringin' it Home

By Gabby Mujica

The 2015 softball season came to an end after a 2-3 loss against first-seed Putnam in the state semi-final play-off game Tuesday evening. The Spartans finished strong, ranked fourth in state. This is the first time in three years that Marist softball has made it past the first round at state.

"We've really bonded over the course of the season and I'm very proud of how well we played together and making it as far as we did," said junior Allicia Meyer.

Senior Shawna Burke runs home as her team mates wait to celebrate her three-run home run with her. Photo by Gabby Mujica