

Homecoming Week Oct. 12-17

Monday
PAJAMA DAY

Tuesday
TWIN DAY

Wednesday
COLOR BLOCK DAY
(all same color or pattern)

Thursday
CAMPOUT DAY

Friday
DECADE DAY

FOOTBALL GAME
7 p.m. Kevin Teller Field

Saturday
HOMECOMING
DANCE
8 p.m. MHS Gym

New Senior Buddy Shirts

By Isabella Hardt

During this week, senior Anilese Haney passed out senior buddy shirts to other senior girls as a fun way to build camaraderie in the senior class. Each participating senior girl was paired with a cross country, football, or soccer athlete to support them throughout the season.

Celebrating Seniors

Seniors Anna Houser and Isabella Hardt are the first to commemorate senior night, as the volleyball team hosted their last regular season home game Tuesday. Photo by Toni Cooper

JUMP-IN AT THE LOCK-IN

Junior and senior Lock-In leaders party with the Class of 2019. Photo by Michael Henderson '16

Freshmen spend all night getting to know their classmates

By Emily Jewett

Freshmen students, mentally prepared for a sleepless night, gathered at Marist last Saturday evening with upperclassmen and faculty for the annual Lock-In.

The all-nighter event was the first retreat of the year and was planned to enable freshmen to become familiar with their new classmates and bond with one another in a friendly and fun environment.

The night began with ice-breaker games and activities, then freshmen joined together in small groups led by junior and senior leaders for bonding and discussion. Fr. David Jaspers led a fun, spirited Mass with a message of how to have a healthy life, centered on God, good friends, and chastity.

A dance party followed the Mass, DJ'ed by senior Caleb Coulombe. After the dance, the small groups created music videos. The freshmen also enjoyed free time and breakfast before being picked up by their parents.

"It's a good time and a good chance to actually get to know your classmates," freshman Chase Bond said.

Freshmen Sean Kim and Marcus Irwin enjoy ice-breaker activities at the Lock-In. Photo by Toni Cooper

A group of freshmen and their leaders complete their 'So You Think You Can Dance' routine during ice-breakers. Photo by Kate Zhang '17

First Snaps on New Turf

By Ashton Stowell

After a whole summer of construction, the Marist community is very excited for the completion of the new turf field, even if the geese are not.

The new Kevin Teller turf field is ready for the first home football games this Friday at 3:30 p.m. for JV and 7:00 p.m. for varsity.

The dedication ceremony for the new field will be held on Friday, Oct. 16 at 6:45 p.m. prior to the start of the Homecoming Game.

The football teams were the first to use the new field, holding practices this week.

"It was amazing," said junior wide receiver Cayden Spencer.

Junior Nathaniel Koester readies to snap the ball, while sophomore Reow Jackson and junior Monquel Glasow line up behind, during the first full practice on the new turf field. Photo by Gabby Mujica '16

NHS Officers Elected

Senior NHS officers. Photo by Gabby Mujica '16

By Megan Mersino

National Honors Society members were elected this Tuesday at a meeting in the theater.

Margo Werner and Brandon David ran for president and vice president, and all other positions ran unopposed. Werner was elected president and David vice president.

Madisyn Bryant was elected philanthropy chairperson, Bridgette McAllister as tutoring chairperson, Jordan Pifer as secretary, and Heidi Sibole as service coordinator.

STRONG SPARTAN OF THE WEEK

Jordan Pifer

By Benny Flores

Shout out to Jordan Pifer for breaking the all-time boys varsity soccer scoring record.

This four-year letterman has accumulated 44 goals so far over his four years. Pifer broke the record during the Crater game last week.